Michigan Roundtable for Diversity & Inclusion

Workplace Diversity, Equity and Inclusion • Thursday, May 16, 2019

What is it?

A conference on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion - Equipping the Workforce for Transformational Change.

Why should you attend?

This unique conference hosted by the Michigan Roundtable, partners, and sponsors at the historical site of Marygrove College will deconstruct the idea of diversity as a point of destination and construct a business case for valuing diversity by integrating inclusion and equity into your overall strategy.

Who should attend?

The Inclusion Conference is the ideal forum for anyone interested in a greater understanding of the need for enhancing focus on inclusion and equity in the workplace.

- Human Resources
- Diversity Leaders
- CEO and Executive Leadership
- Community Leaders, law enforcement and governance
- Educators
- Employee Resource Groups (ERG)
- Supplier Diversity Professionals

Conference Goals

- To increase attendee's knowledge on leveraging diversity, equity, and inclusion in order to create equitable workplaces.
- To assist attendees with broadening and enhancing their understanding of the value of equitable and inclusive executive leadership and create cutting edge diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives.
- To provide attendees with learning opportunities regarding diversity initiatives and strategies that benefit their employees, suppliers, ERGs and customers.
